

Letter of Reference

(name of applicant), has applied to the Institute for Village Studies' overseas study program. S/he will be living and working in rugged field camp conditions with a group of students and faculty, teaching at local schools, participating in community service projects, and conducting independent research. Please take a moment and comment on his or her capacity and enthusiasm to work under these conditions.

1. How long have you known the applicant?
2. Under what circumstances?
3. How do you feel the applicant will perform under rigorous field studies conditions?
4. What are the applicant's greatest strengths?
5. What are the applicant's greatest challenges?

Other comments or considerations

Signature:

Date: